AMERICAN LABOR PARTY

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the American Labor Party:

"AMERICAN LABOR PARTY

"1. For years, the Communists have put forth the greatest efforts to capture the entire American Labor Party throughout New York State. They succeeded in capturing the Manhattan and Brooklyn sections of the American Labor Party but outside of New York City they have been unable to win control.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 76.)

"2. Communist dissimulation extends into the field of political parties forming political front organizations such as the American Labor Party. The Communists are thus enabled to present their candidates for elective office under other than a straight Communist label.
(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook on Americanism, Nov. 1954, pp. 13-14, p. 9.)

I.
THE "GUARDIAN" FORMERLY KNOWN AS
"NATIONAL GUARDIAN" WEEKLY GUARDIAN
ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the "National Guardian":

"1. ... established by the American Labor Party in 1947 as a "progressive" weekly... it has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propoganda arm of Soviet Russia."

The February 3, 1968 issue of the "National Guardian" announced that as of the issue of February 10, 1968, the "National Guardian" would henceforth be known as the "Guardian".

The February 10, 1968 issue of the "Guardian" is self-described as an "independent radical newsweekly" and is published by Weekly Guardian Associates, Incorporated. The "Guardian" lists its address as 197 East 4th Street, New York, New York.

The February 12, 1968, issue of the "New York Times" carried an article entitled, "Radical Editors Say Their Job is In 'Movement'". This article stated that the first issue of the "Guardian" was dedicated by the paper's staff "to those heroic Liberation fighters who last week began a major offensive against American Imperialism in South Vietnam."

This article quoted one of the editors as saying, "Our job is to build a Radical Movement. To quote the Cuban revolutionaries, we are not only to write about it, but to move along with it - we are revolutionaries." The article stated that the "Guardian" takes a strong position and is not identified with any organized group. It stated that an "independent radical ideology" is at the heart of its purpose and that it seeks to free the world from the ideology of "capitalism".
