In the Works

The Bureau of Prisons has undertaken new construction projects to accommodate the growing Federal inmate population and reduce overcrowding in the institutions it already has open. The following institutions were scheduled to come online after September 30, 1997. Please note that the estimated construction completion dates are projections, not fixed dates. Also, once construction is completed at a new institution, that institution does not immediately begin accepting inmates, as there are necessary activation and preparatory procedures that must be completed beforehand.

Community Corrections

The Bureau's Community Corrections and Detention Division (CCDD) is responsible for the development and implementation of policies and procedures related to the administration of approximately 600 community corrections and detention contract facilities nationwide. The Division is responsible for the Bureau's efforts in privatization, and for coordinating the BOP's newly-acquired responsibility to confine sentenced felony offenders from the District of Columbia. Through its National Office of Citizen Participation, CCDD is responsible for the coordination of volunteer programs.

The Division's Detention Services Branch develops policies and provides program guidance for U.S. Marshals Service and Immigration and Naturalization Service prisoners who are housed in BOP institutions. Detention Services also administers the Mariel Cuban program. As approximately 25 percent of the Bureau's population are foreign nationals, the Detention Branch has been proactive in obtaining contract bedspace for this group.

In addition to the community corrections and detention professionals located in the Bureau's Central Office in Washington, D.C., each of the Bureau's six Regional Offices has a community corrections regional administrator. Collectively, these regional administrators oversee 13 management center administrators, and the activities of 29 Community Corrections Management (CCM) Offices throughout the United States.

Each CCM Office has a community corrections manager, who is responsible for the development, administration, and routine oversight of residential and non-residential services provided through contractual agreements. Programs and services are facilitated through contractual agreements with Federal, State, county, and city Government agencies and through contracts with private agencies. Services provided by these agencies include prerelease programs; short and long-term detention; juvenile and adult boarding; and home confinement programs such as those using electronic monitoring.

The Bureau of Prisons is also actively involved in the expansion of new programs and facilities, including transitional drug-abuse treatment programs and Comprehensive Sanctions Centers.
